OLNEY'S OUTLINE MAPS—the cheapest in market oct22 S CHAPMAN

THE EMIGRANT:

A Weekly Paper to be published in Milwaukee, on Saturday, the first week of December, 1850, and every succeeding Saturday.

Terms—$2 00 per annum, quarterly in advance

To those who behold—every year—thousands of toiling and industrious human beings coming to seek a home, and a shelter, far from the land of their childhood, in this American Republic, it may not appear strange that a man, (an Irish Emigrant himself,) should think of establishing a newspaper, devoted, in some measure, to the instruction and guidance of his fellows—a directory, as it were, to the stranger, in fixing on a set principle of action, suited alike to all grades and all callings—cautioning the unwary and unlitiated, against the numerous snares and many pitfalls, that are constantly laid in their innocent way, (by the designing and cruel-hearted,) in which they lose their property, their peace of mind, and often times their health, never, never, (perhaps with few exceptions,) to recover those pecuniary losses, or their former happiness.

The public are aware how many aspersions our old country men are subjected to, [sometimes deserved, but oftener not—intoxication, quarreling, and theft being the principal accusations in the calendar of crimes,] but it must be acknowledged that these misfortunes befall us from the want of some kind monitor—some trustworthy friend, to keep us in the right way, and guide our steps through the mazes of danger and vice, into which the young and unguarded fall, without knowing when that danger is at hand, or how to avoid it.

To bring the settler then to a just level with the native citizen in every department, will be the proudest task of the Editor, and if the success of the undertaking be only partial for a time, still, with a little encouragement from the people, the laborer will be excited to greater action, and renewed perseverance, disclaiming (in toto) all party politics, at the same time exposing injustice and unmasking fraud, infamy, and deceit, too commonly practiced in a new country

The increasing poverty of Ireland, and other European countries, [accompanied, alas! this harvest, with the failure of the wheat and potatoe crop,] must drive half a million more, next spring, to the friendly shores of this continent, and therefore, it is more than ever necessary, that our brethren should have reliable information and unprejudiced advice in a public print

The hardy and bold man from the Mountains of Kerry—the plodding, sober-minded, of the rich fields of Limerick or Meath—the industrious artizan of Manchester or Birmingham—the rough, healthy looking farmer of Leicester or Norfolk—the far-off Highlander of Cattness, or the more refined Southerner from Clyde Dale, may all profit alike by some organ suited to their tastes, yet drawing them still closer, in heart and mind, to the interests and welfare of their adopted nation

We close this notice with a hope that this publication will obtain a fair patronage, from all classes, [the people of Wisconsin in particular,] and with the assurance that our motto shall be—"The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth!" oct19-dtd

BOOK-BINDING ESTABLISHMENT.

AN OLD FRIEND IN A NEW PLACE!

Blank Book Manufactory and Stationery.

170 East Water street,

Third door north of Michigan street, up stairs,

And 335 Third st., 2d Ward, old stand,

Milwaukee, - - Wisconsin.

HENRY NIEDECKEN,

A PRACTICAL BOOK-BINDER of long experience, in all its branches, would most respectfully inform the citizens of Milwaukee and the surrounding country, that he is prepared to bind any description of Books, being possessed of the best gilding and finishing tools, and keeping constantly on hand the first quality of binding material. He has found it necessary, by reason of increasing business, (consequent upon his low price and superior quality of work and materials,) to open another for the convenience of his "down town" friends, at the above mentioned place, where he will be happy to see his old customers and as many new ones as will favor him with their patronage.

Bindery, Ruling and Blank Book Establishment,

Blank Books for banks, merchants, county clerks, recorders, auditors, treasurers, school commissioners, magistrates, insurance offices, &c, manufactured in the best manner, which in elegance, durability, and superiority of style and finish, will not be surpassed by any eastern manufacturer. In all his large blank books, he uses the improved patent mode of sewing, which gives strength, with great elasticity, and is incomparably superior to any other method for blank books, and will keep the leaves firm and solid while the book lasts, instead of coming to pieces, as is often the case with all other methods. No additional charge is made for this improvement.

Machine Ruling.—Ruling of every description, for blank books, tax lists, &c, neatly and promptly executed.

Fancy Articles.—He is also prepared to make all kinds of fancy articles, such as ladies' and gentlemen's portfolios, caskets, card, spectacle and cegar cases, pocket books, &c, with neatness and despatch.

Ruled Music Paper.—He will also keep on hand a supply of blank paper ruled for manuscript music, which he can sell at so low a price that it will be a great saving of time, labor and money, to buy this all ruled and ready for writing the music

Albums, Magazines, Music Books, &c, will be bound with the greatest care, and in a neat and elegant style, to which the attention of the ladies is most particularly invited.

Bibles, Hymn, Prayer and School Books, are constantly kept on hand, as also

STATIONERY, of all kinds, such as writing paper, ink, quills, steel pens, sealing wax, slates, writing books, and wafers, and a variety of books too numerous to mention.

GILT PICTURE FRAMES.

He is also in constant receipt, (imported direct from Germany by himself,) of a superior article of gilt frames, of all sizes, which he will sell at prices which cannot fail of suiting purchasers. He will be happy to show his goods and style of work to all who will favor him with a call, as he is confident that he can please every variety of taste. By good work and honest dealing, he expects to gain the patronage of the citizens of Milwaukee and the surrounding country oct12 d24

THE POPULAR CYCLOPEDIA OR MODERN DOMESTIC MEDICINE

BY KEITH IMRAY, M. D.

Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and Licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.

AMERICAN EDITION.

One large Octavo Volume, substantially bound.

THIS work presents a concise but clear view of the predisposing causes, premonitory signs, and distinguishing symptoms of disease, with the methods of cure recommended by the most eminent physicians.

The best modes of employing the medicines in general use are faithfully described; and the most approved rules for regulating diet and regimen during the periods of disease and convalescence, are amply furnished.

The art of Preserving Health, embracing special Treatises on Diet, Air, Temperance, Bathing, Clothing, and Exercise, is fully considered.

The publishers of the American edition have introduced Dr. Imray's work with short, illustrated, very complete sketches of Anatomy, Physiology and Surgery; and with directions for the domestic management of the sick, the preparation of their food, and the economy of the sick room, &c. They have also annexed a comprehensive MOTHER'S MEDICAL GUIDE, containing directions for the preservation of health during pregnancy, rules for managing the lying-in-room, and the treatment of infants, including air, clothing, exercise, &c. Also, a large number of valuable prescriptions, arranged for ready application; and a very full classified table of medicines, exhibiting their medicinal properties, doses and uses.

The Index is unusually complete, making the whole a most perfect and valuable work for families.

It can confidently be recommended to physicians and apothecaries, as well as to the public, as a book that will be found singularly convenient for ready reference.

Agents are wanted to circulate the above work. Several counties in Wisconsin not yet occupied. Address

S. CHAPMAN, General Agent for Wisconsin, at Milwaukee.

The most liberal terms given. jan15 6

ARRIVAL OF JENNY LIND.

[The following jeu d' espirit is from the Bridgeport Standard. The poet has seized the moment when the Nightingale stepped from a car into a carriage, to go to Iranistan :]

Well! we've seen her! yes; we did!
It was nine o'clock at night,
Not a cloud the azure hid—
And the moon was shining bright!
When we saw the immortal
Jenny Lind,
From a common rail-car portal,
As a Pat would say, "descind!"

We saw her rather dimly,
For the shadows fell down grimly
From the cars and things around;
And her bonnet and her veil
Were an eye-proof coat of mail,
While the smoke from out the rail-
Road locomotive's "chimbly"
Did in the atmosphere abound.
We did not see a feature
Of the ear-enchanting creature,
Nor did we meet a glance
From those eyes that so entrance;
But the hat, and veil, and all,
And her comfortable shawl,
That in graceful folds did fall,
O'er her bust, and waist and hips!
Them we saw
With pleasant awe!
And we felt the mighty truth deep impressed,
That beneath that veil and shawl,
And gown and pet—that is all
The clothes her form that dressed—
The glorious creature was!
No mistake about it, poz!
And we tremble in our boots—
Like a man does when he shoots
For the first time in his life, a deer or moose.
A fever nagur shake,
With a tendency to make
Your body pimpled over like a goose.
'Twas more than we could bar,
So we leaned against a car,
While a singing in our ears,
Like the music of the spheres,
A gently stealin' thro' us,
Said melodiously to us,
She is thar!
Jenny's thar!
But echo did not answer, as we knew of,
Whar?
An I we heard her honey tones,
Go thrilling through our bones,
And doubtless shall feel them for a week,
Yes, that sweet, soul-probing voice,
In whose power we all rejoice,
That could teach a new song to a bird,
We have heard,
It's true! we heard it say—
And long, O! long the day
In our memory will stay—
In silvery sounds we heard her
Most delicately murder
The English of the King.
Yes! we heard her say, and her say is like a sing,
(The engine of the train had just begun to shriek,)
When from the coach she said,
As she forward bent her head,
"Ko on, triver, queek—ko on, queek!"
'Twas too much for us to bear,
We shuddered, gasped for air,
Fell and fainted, then and there!
And now to hear her sing,
Is a can't-be-done sir, thing;
For to die we do not dare!

AGRICULTURAL.

Apples have been raised the present season so large that 64 make a bushel.

Wheat crop of Canada.—The Toronto papers estimate the surplus wheat of Upper Canada, this season, at 7,000,000 bushels more than last, which was 4,000,000—making 11,000,000 bushels that will be sent to our markets.

Virtues of Smart Weed.—It is almost a sure remedy in case of colic. Steep and drink the same as any other herb tea. In the next place it is worth $5 per hundred for a stock of cattle if it is cut and well cured in full bloom. Give an ox, cow, or horse, one pound per week, during the time they are up to hay, and it will keep their bowels and hide loose. It is an excellent physic. If a horse has one pound a week there is no danger of his having botts or worms, or any kind of disease, and they will eat it sooner than they will eat the best of hay.

To keep Apples.—Wipe every apple dry with a cloth, and see that no blemished ones are left among them. Have ready a very dry tight barrel, and cover the bottom with dry pebbles; these will attract the damp of the apples. Then put in the fruit; head the barrel; and plaster the seams with mortar, taking care to have a thick rim of mortar all around the top. Let the barrel remain undisturbed in the same place till you want the apples for use. Pippins, bell flowers, and other apples of the best sort, may be kept in this way till July.

Insanity among Farmers.—The fact that 15 per cent of the males and 16 per cent of the females confined and treated for insanity in the Pennsylvania Asylum, are farmers, and the wives and daughters of farmers, has led to some discussion in the causes of insanity in rural life.

One class of writers, we observe, is striving to trace the causes to the stomach and liver. They maintain that the salt pork and beef, the dumplings &c., of farmers, when made the staple food from year to year with little or no change, derange the functions of the digestive organs and in time affect the brain.

—We are indebted to Mr. Norton, of Burlington, for the largest squash we have ever seen, weighing 85 lbs., and measuring 6 feet and 1 inch around. It was of a golden color and rich flavor.

Mr. Norton raised over 700 of these mammoth squashes on one-fourth of acre of ground. We saw them before harvested and should think the whole would average three-fourths the size presented to us. We will state for the information of those who may have the curiosity to know what kind of soil produced so large a crop, that it was oak openings, entirely free from black loam and sloping to the south.—Wisconsin Farmer.

To Measure Hay in Stacks.—More than twenty years since, says an old farmer, I copied the following method of measuring hay, from some publication and having verified its general accuracy, I have both bought and sold by it and believe it may be useful to many farmers, where the means of weighing are not on hand. Multiply the length, breadth, and height into each other, and if the hay is somewhat settled ten solid yards will make a ton. Clover will take from ten to twelve yards per ton.

MILWAUKEE:

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 15.

ILLEGAL VOTING.

That hundreds of illegal votes were polled in this city, on the day of election, is an indisputable fact. For instance: 960 votes were polled in the First Ward, while the census, taken last summer, shows that not near as many voters reside in that Ward. More than one hundred were challenged off, who dared not swear in their votes. One swore in his vote three times, the Board helplessly receiving it, because he swore it in. The Board has no alternative, but to receive a vote the first time a man offers it, and swears to his right. But the law does not contemplate the right of any man to swear in his vote more than once, at the same election. Otherwise, a man might stand and swear in his vore from morning till night, and vote a thousand times at one election, if he could go through the process of an oath so often. And the Board in the First Ward, decided, in principle, that this might be done, by allowing the same man to swear in his vote twice in an hour, according to their own testimony.

We saw loads driven up to the polls and challenged off, sometimes one or two, and oftentimes not any of them daring to swear in their vote. And these men, in every instance where their votes were seen before or after offering to vote, had Elmore votes in their hand. The men who voted for Mr. Durkee, were not of the class who would destroy the purity of elections, for the sake of a political victory.

In the Third Ward, part of the Board were in favor of taking the votes pretty much in the lump, but Alderman Button—to his honor we name it—rejected at once, those he knew had no right to vote; in one instance stating that the man, whose vote one of his colleagues wished to receive, came to his house on his first landing here, a few weeks ago, and asked employment. We predict that Alderman Button will be superseded by a more pliant politician. We can only add, that the same game was attempted to be played, with more or less success, at all the polls in this county.

The suppression of illegal voting is a matter which concerns all honest men. Because, if the legal voters may be overbone by a troop of illegal voters, imported from another ward or town, the right of suffrage becomes a farce, and an election is resolved into a strife between lawless and corrupt men, as to who can buy up and import the greatest number of scamps, with money and grog.

LEVYING BLACK MAIL.

One means resorted to by the getters up of the Fugitive Slave Law meeting, was to threaten to publish the names of those merchants who refused to sign the call, and thus deprive them of the benefit of Southern trade. And this threat they actually executed.—Messrs. Bowen & McNamee, the most extensive dealers in silk perhaps in the city of New York, and proprietors of the Independent, the best religious paper in the world, being among the tabooed, published the following card:

A CARD.—The public, including the New-York Journal of Commerce, are informed that we are Silk Merchants, and keep an extensive and well assorted stock of goods, which we offer to responsible buyers on reasonable terms. As individuals we entertain our own views on the various Religious, Moral and Political questions of the day, which we are neither afraid nor ashamed to declare on all proper occasions. But we wish it distinctly understood, that our goods, and not our principles, are in the market. The attempt to punish us as Merchants, for the exercise of our liberty as Citizens, we leave to the judgment of the community.

BOWEN & McNAMEE.

New-York, Oct. 26, 1850.

This publishing of New-York merchants who refuse to bow the knee to Baal, has two sides to it. If it shuts off Southern custom, it will gain them the trade off the Free Northwest. Men who will sell their principles, will sell their customers; but men like Bowen & McNamee, can always be relied on to do right.

NEW PLANING MILL.—We yesterday visited the Planing mill just started by Mr. Gillett, near Sweet's Warehouse, an Advertisement of which will be found in to-day's paper, and were gratified to observe the rapidity and perfection with which it accomplished its work. It planed and matched a hundred feet in length in one minute. It can finish, with ease, 6000 feet an hour. We think it will soon supersede all other planing machines now patented.

HURRAH!—A salute of 100 guns was fired on Boston Common, Nov. 12th, in honor of Horace Mann's election, by a majority of 260 majority over all his competitors. He was thrown overboard by the whigs on acconnt of his opposition to Webster, and the Fugitive Slave Law. The New Haven Palladium says the whigs "were either compelled to drown themselves or throw Mr. Mann overboard." We conclude the whigs in Mann's district have "drowned themselves."

☞ We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. HOLBROOK, of Chicago, who offers to sell the right of J. P. Woodbury's Planing Machine for this State. All any one needs to do, to satisfy himself of the vast superiority of this machine over any one in existence, is to step into Gillett's Planing Mill and see it in operation. We think it safe to say that it will perform as much work in one day, as the ordinary machines can in a week.

SPRING STREET BRIDGE.—The Fathers have concluded to "mend their ways," and as will be seen by the Report, have actually appropriated $300 from the "General City Fund," or rather, the "General City Debt," to patch up the broken bridge. We expect somebody will scuttle it again about mid-winter, or right after the January thaw, when there can be no crossing on the ice.

PLANK ROADS.—The Sentinel says that the Milwaukee and Lisbon Plank Road is being pushed forward successfully, and what is already completed, pays 25 per cent on the cost of construction and maintenance.

CITY MATTERS.

COMMON COUNCIL.

This "venerable" body held their regular meeting last evening—His Honor the Mayor in the chair.

Considerable business of a local and private nature, in the way of presenting accounts and estimates, auditing and allowing accounts, &c. was transacted.

A resolution to issue 5000 dollars in school bonds, was amended to read "4000 dollars," and passed by a majority of 8 to 4.

Ald. Button, of the Third Ward, offered a resolution, authorizing the bridge committee to repair Spring Street Bridge, and charge to the General Fund. It was moved to amend by authorizing them to construct a new bridge. This was withdrawn, and, on motion of Ald. Ludington, $300 from the general city fund, were appropriated to repair the bridge, and make it passable.

After some farther local business, the board adjourned.

CITY FINANCES—The prosperous condition of the City Finances was beautifully illustrated, last evening, by a statement made to the Council, by Ald. ROGERS, that about a dozen judgments, varying from $35 to $300, and amounting in all to some twelve or fifteen hundred dollars, are recorded against the City, in the books of the various Courts. Other suits are pending, and more threatened.

☞ Pedestrians will be happy to learn that the excavations and filling up, at the corner of East Water and Wisconsin Sts., are nearly completed.

FIRE!—The alarm about noon was caused by the structure, at the corner of Milwaukee and Biddle Sts., occupied by the First Ward Public School, taking fire from the stove-pipe passing through the roof. The blaze was soon extinguished, with trifling damage.

VARIETY.

—The present number of postmistresses in the United States is eighty-one,

—(Ex Rev.) Mr. Van Zant is about to start a new daily paper at Syracuse, New York.

—The business of the Central Railroad for October shows a large gain over the same month last year, being $165,000 against 123,367, an increase of $41, 633.

—The Chenango Canal is again repaired and navigable.

—A pamphlet has been issued in New York containing the Fugitive Slave Law, and each member of Congress who voted for it. 13,000 copies have been sold within three weeks.

—Large parties from Vermont and New-Hampshire visit New York to hear Jenny Lind.

—Dr. Mott delivered the introductory Lecture before the New York Medical College.

—Smithfield, Madison Co. (the home of Gerrit Smith,) gives for Governor—Hunt 58, Seymour 63, Wm. L. Chaplin 122.

—Two carrier pigeons, let loose by Sir John Ross, one of the seekers for Sir John Franklin have arrived at Ayr, Scotland, and made their way to their former dovecote.—One bore the mutilated and illegible remains of a letter; it had apparently been shot at, having lost its legs. It is supposed that they had flown above 2,000 miles, Sir John took five such pigeons with him.

—Grace Greenwood has engaged to make her Literary contributions, for a year to come, exclusively to the National Era.

—The most alarming indication we have seen in regard to the designs for the South to dissolve the Union, is found in the fact that nobody in Charleston S. C., will accept the U. S. District Attorneyship. When Southerners refuse office at the hands of the General Government, it is a sign that something is in the wind.—Courier and Enquirer.

THE WHITE HOUSE.—The President's lady and his son are duly installed in the White House. The White House and grounds have been greatly improved in the way of health and comfort since Mr. Fillmore occupied the mansion.

—Prof. Mitchell, of the Cincinnati Observatory, is to deliver a series of Lectures in New York this winter.

—There are 7 large beef packing establishments in Chicago which employ 400 men.

—The population of Chicago, as corrected, is 28,000

—What is it that bothers a cabinet maker? Putting a leg to the multiplication table.

—An Irish gentleman, having purchased an alarm clock, an acquaintance asked him what he intended to do with it.

"Oh," said he, "it's the most convenient thing in the world: for I've nothing to do but to pull the string and wake myself."

—Robert Walsh, our Consul at Paris, has been removed.

—Eschewing evil is but one-half of the work; we must also do good.

—Poitevin, the æronaut, who recently ascended on the back of an ostrich, says the bird did not seem much astonished, but looked around in every direction with great apparent satisfaction.

—Miss Delia S. Bacon, the heroine of Miss Beecher's work, "Truth Stranger than Fiction," is about to deliver a course of historical instruction, in Boston, in a series of conversations and lectures.

—Powers statue of the Greek Slave is now at Chicago.

—The New Orleans Picayune contains the substance of McDonough's will. $3,000,000 are appriopated to establish a school, farm and asylum near Baltimore. He gives $400,000 to the Protestant Male Orphan Asylum of New Orleans. He sends all his negroes to Liberia.

Pleasing Intelligence from Texas.—We copy the following from a late Houston paper:

"As to the moral and religious improvement of the State, we are sure it never was surpassed by any new country. The church aye, and the world, are beginning to feel the importance of having the regular means of grace.

"Hanse, what's the matter?"

"Mine Cot! the sorrell wagon has run away mit de green horse, and proke de axeltree of de brick house what stands by de corner lamp post across de way from de apple trees!—run Yaupey, and stop de telegraph. Mine Cot what beebles!"—Alb. Dutchman.

Hanging.—A Scotch parson in his prayer said, "Laird, bless the great Council, the parliament, and grant they may all hang together."

A country fellow standing by replied,

"Yes, with all my heart, and the sooner the better. I'm sure it is the prayer of all good people."

"But friends," said the parson, "I don't mean as that fellow does, but pray that they may all hang together in accord and concord."

"No matter what cord," replied the other "so 'tis but a strong one!"

—The University at Rochester, N. Y. has commenced with about 60 students —The bill to restore Thomas W. Dorr to his rights, was defeated in the Rhode Island Senate, at Greenwich—yeas 14, nays 17.

—At Watertown, in this state, good wheat is selling at 50 and 53 cents.

—Jenny Lind gets as much for the use of her voice one evening, as two thousand men do for working all day with their hands.

—Roosters have sometimes have been called preachers, owing to the fact that they proclaim vira voce, the approach of day. What then, shall we style the hens? Why lay members, to be sure.—Minnesota Register.

JENNY LIND'S THUMB—She uses it freely.—It was the custom of Jenny Lind during her provincial tour through England, upon entering the theatre in the evening, to seize the first man she met with, carpenter, scene shifter or gas man, and shake him by the thumb, in friendly token. The custom is not confined to Sweden. Walter Scott says of Rob Roy, to Bailie Nicol Jarvie, "There's my thumb—I'll ne'er beguile you."

A novel Team.—One day last week, a gentleman drove through town in a buggy having two elks attached to it. They measured space quite briskly.—Trumbull (Ohio) Dem.

LIFE ASSURANCE.
Ætna Insurance Company, HARTFORD, CONN.—ANNUITY FUND, $150,000.—This well known and long established Company, having organized a new department for LIFE INSURANCE, with an entirely distinct capital, exclusively pledged with its reserved accumulations, for the payment of losses upon Life Insurance only, and in no event liable for the other debts, contracts, or engagements of the Company, is now prepared to issue Policies on Lives, at rates materially reduced from those charged by the Mutual Companies. The leading idea of the system adopted by this Company, is, to ascertain precisely what it is worth to insure a given amount upon a life for a certain time, and to charge precisely that sum, and no more: it is attended with none of those vexatious contingencies which are inseparable from the mutual system—it has nothing to do with scrip dividends or bonuses, the declaration of which upon true and equitable principles, is attended with so much difficulty and perplexity—it is perfectly simple, as well as uniform and equal in all its operations.
The promptness, fairness and liberality which have marked all the dealings of this Company, for a period of thirty years, and the well known character of its officers and directors, afford the surest guaranty that its affairs will be so managed as to afford to the assured that ultimate safety and security which is of first importance in Life Assurance.
Policies will be granted payable after death, or upon the party's arriving at a specified age, at his option; in either case, free from the claims of creditors The usual extra risks will be assumed by this Company at reasonable rates.
Pamphlets containing Rates of Premium, and information in relation to the plan of operations, and all necessary papers to effect insurance, may be obtained at the Agency of this Company.

STORIES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

[Conclusion.]

'But you, mother, and all of you, how pale you are, and how thin! I know—yes, don't say it—I know who's gone. I walked all the way to the village, and found the poor cottage empty, and heard how he died.'

'Home! You went there?'

'Yes, and the neighbors told me that you were gone to London. But I slept all night in the kitchen on some straw. There I lay, and I thought of you, and of him we had lost, and I prayed that I might be a comfort to you yet.'

Joy and sorrow seemed struggling for the mastery in the widow's heart; but the present happiness proved the stronger, and she was soon smiling and listening to Harry.

'I had a hard matter to find you,' he said. 'You had left the lodging they had directed me to at first.'

'But I left word where I had come to.'

'Yes, so you had, and an old woman told me you were at No. 10, Paradise Row.'

'What could she be thinking of?'

'No one had heard of you in that place. However, as I was going along back again to get better information, keeping a sharp look-out in hopes that I might meet you, I passed the end of this lane, and saw it was called Eden Lane, so I thought perhaps the old lady had mixed Paradise and Eden; [illegible] all the same; and sure enough they are both as like each other for they are wretched, miserable places as I ever saw. I turned in here, and No. 10 proved wrong too; and as I was standing looking about and wondering what I should do next, a gentleman touched my arm, and pointing first at the black pools in the broken pavement, and then at this window, he said—I remember his very words, they struck me so—'Do not the very stones rise up in judgment against us? Look at those little fellows trying to fly their kite out of such a place!' Hearing him say so, I looked up, and saw my old kite—by it I found you out!'

They all turned gratefully towards it, and [illegible] still hung outside, held there safely by its entangled tail. The talk, therefore, went on uninterruptedly. Many questions were asked and answered, and many subjects discussed, the sad state of poor little Jem being the most pressing. At the end of an hour, a great bustle was going on in the room, [illegible] packing up all their small stock of [illegible], for Harry had succeeded, after some [illegible], in persuading his mother to leave [illegible] that very evening, and [illegible] one more night for poor Jem in [illegible]. He smoothed every difficulty. Mrs. Willis gladly undertook to do the work she engaged to do; and with her he deposited the rent, and the key of the room. He said that he had another place ready to take his mother to, and to her anxious look he replied, 'I did good service in the ship, and the owners have been generous to us all. I have five pound!'

'Five pound!' If he had said, 'I have got possession of a gold district in California,' he could not have created a greater sensation. It seemed an inexhaustible amount of wealth.

A light cart was soon got and packed, and [illegible] not only the goods [not forgetting the kite], but the living possessors of them; and they set forth on their way.

The evening sun again beamed over the [illegible] and the tall trees, as they threw their shadows over the grass, waved a blessing on the family beneath, from whose hearts a silent thanksgiving went up, that harmonized with the joyous hymn of the birds. The [illegible] traveler, as he walked at the horse's head holding his elder brother's hand, no longer looked anxiously onward, for he knew where they were going, and saw his young brother already beginning to revive in the fresh air, and rejoiced in his mother's content and happiness. She had divined for some time to what home she was going.

'But how did you contrive to get it fixed so quickly, my kind, good boy?' said she.

'I went to the landlord, and he agreed at once; and do not be afraid, I can earn enough for us all.'

'But you must go to sea again!'

'If I must, do not fear. Did you not always teach me that His hand would keep me and hold me, even in the uttermost parts of the sea?'

And she felt that there was no room for fear.

A week after this time, the sun again lighted up a happy party. Harry and John were engaged in preparing their kite for flying in a green field behind their cottage. Under the [illegible], on an old tree trunk, sat their mother, no longer in black and rusty crape, but neatly dressed in a fresh, clean gown and cap, and with a face bright with hope and pleasure. By her was Jem, with cheeks already filling out, a tinge of color in them, and eyes full of delight. On her other side was little Mary Willis. She had just arrived, and was telling them how, the very day after they left, some workmen came and put down a nice pavement on each side of the lane, and laid a pipe under ground instead of the gutter; [illegible] now it was as dry and clean as it [illegible], and all the children could play there, [illegible] such numbers of games going on, [illegible] all said it was the best thing they [illegible] for many a day; and so did their mothers, too, for now the children were not crowded into their rooms all day long, but could play out of doors.

'Depend upon it,' said Harry, 'it is that gentleman's doings that spoke to me of it the day I came first. This good old kite has done good service, and now it shall be rewarded by sailing up to a splendid height.'

As he spoke, he held it up, the light breeze caught it, and it soared away over their heads under the blue sky; while the happy faces that watched it bore witness of the truth of his words—that 'the good old kite had done good service.'

Southern Convention at Nashville.

The following states are represented: Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia and Florida; in all about sixty delegates.

The documents from Alabama are very lengthy, and of the most ultra character, denouncing the compromises of Congress, declaring the right of secession inalienable, and recommending a general Southern Convention to take measures of redress; they were referred to a Committee, and after some unimportant business adjourned to 10 o'clock to-morrow.

New York, Nov. 14th.

The Court at Rockville has refused to admit Chaplin to bail on affidavit filed yesterday, affirming that he could not obtain a fair trial at this court, claiming a change of name, which was granted, and the case ruled to the Spring term in Howard District Court. Seven indictments were presented against him; three charging him with assault and battery with intent to kill, two for larceny of Toombs & Stevens' slaves, and two for assisting slaves to escape. Bail was fixed at $19,000, which will be forthcoming to-day, and by Sunday Chaplin will be at New York.

☞ Russia has already sent 89 packages, to be exhibited at the World's Fair London, in 1851. The daily papers at London have taken up the subject. The Morning Chronicle gives columns of information every morning, in three languages. In anticipation of the vast number of visitors, an extra quantity of malt liquors has been brewed, so much so as to raise the price of hops. The three exhibitions—in London in 1851, in New York in 1852, and and in Paris in 1853—will be the real Peace and Progress Congresses.

S. JOHNSON, JR.,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
DRUGS AND MEDICINES,
PAINTS, OILS, DYE-STUFFS,
Varnish, Glass, Brushes, Perfumery, Soaps,
FANCY GOODS, &c &c

THE Proprietor of this old and well known Store, having made arrangements for a HEAVY FALL TRADE,
by the purchase of an immense stock of every thing in the line, unusually large even for this Establishment, confidently invites attention to his stock, assured that for quality, cheapness, comprehensiveness, and care in selection, it cannot be excelled by any concern west of Buffalo. As the reputation of his establishment renders unnecessary the common practice of enumerating articles and affixing to them qualities both fabulous and ridiculous, he will merely assure his patrons that he has been unwearied in selecting his stock of entire purity, and having bought close and in large quantities, is enabled to defy competion in the sale of it.

East India and Mediterranean Drugs,
FRENCH, ENGLISH & AMERICAN CHEMICALS,
PAINTS, OILS, DYE-STUFFS,
Varnishes, Window Glass, Putty, Brushes of all kinds, Patent Medicines generally,
Shakers' Herbs, Roots and Extracts,
Thomsonian Preparations, Druggists' and Physicians' Glass-ware and Furniture, Surgical Instruments, Philosophical Apparatus, &c. &c.

☞ S. JOHNSON, Jr., is Agent for all the most POPULAR PATENT MEDICINES
of the day. Among his stock may be found Bristol's Extract of Sarsaparilla, and Balsam of Hourhound, Buchan's Hungarian Balsam, Osgood's India Cholagogue, Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, Sherman's Lozenges, Dailey's Magical Pain Extractor McAllister's Medicines, Scarpa's Acoustic Oil, Smith's Sugar Coated Pills, Thompson's and Marsh's Uterine Supporters, Winer's Medicines, Miles' Tomato Pills, Moffat's Pills and Phoenix Bitters, Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort and Tar, and Wood Naptha, Dr Swain's Medicines, Wynkoop's Tonic Mixture, Dr Starkweather's Hepatic Elixir, Hebrew Plaster, and Resurrection Pills. &c

Wholesale Agency for the sale of the original and genuine
Dr. S. P. Townsend's Sarsaparilla.

Those who have extended their patronage tot this establishment in times past, are assured that INCREASED ATTENTION
and assiduity will be exercised to give them entire satisfaction in all their dealings with him, and to merit their continuance. Those who are STRANGERS, are invited to look in, and are assured that no house west of the Lakes possesses more ample facilities for furnishing them with every article in the line, at the lowest rates. As Careful and experienced Packers only are employed, purchasers may rely on receiving their Goods sound and in good order, with ordinary care on the part of the teamster.

REYNOLDS' GREAT ROMANCE.
NOW COMPLETE,
The Bronze Statue, or the Virgin's Kiss.
BY G. M. W. REYNOLDS.
Author of Life in London, Ellen Monroe, Mysteries of the Court of London, &c. &c.
Complete in two large handsome volumes. Price $1.
☞ The above work first appeared in Reynolds' Miscellany, the last steamer bringing over the completion.
This work is unlike any of the author's previous works, being entirely free from any thing that would offend the most fastidious, but abounding in scenes and descriptions of the most thrilling chararacter.—We defy any one to read twenty pages of the Bronze Statue and lay the book aside
